

Activity 36

“Observers’ Feedback”

Goals: train observation skills / learn giving fair feedback

One or two of each of the two teams have the task to observe the others’ debate and giving feedback after the debate concludes.

They report on the strongest argument and the strongest counterargument of the other team, answering the question, “what made them strong?”

Important:

the teacher makes sure that the students do not give negative feedback.